Cape Coral, FL – March 5, 2025—The German American Social Club of Cape Coral will host its next lively St. Patrick's Day celebration in the Bavarian Garden on March 15 and 16, 2025. This two-day festival combines the best German traditions with a vibrant atmosphere, offering a fantastic selection of German and Irish food favorites, cold Irish and German beer, and live music. We invite everyone to enjoy the weekend at our Biergarten - a lively yet relaxed space - surrounded by friends, delicious food, and a unique beer selection.

The festival will take place from 12:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Saturday, March 15, and from 12:00 PM to 7:00 PM on Sunday, March 16. It's an event centered around celebrating the world's most iconic cultures, featuring a perfect blend of tradition and modern flair.

Traditional corned beef sandwiches are piled high with tender, seasoned beef at St. Patrick's Day in the Biergarten. We'll offer shepherd's pie for those craving something warm and hearty. Of course, we won't overlook our German favorites, including crispy potato pancakes served with applesauce, bratwurst sizzling on the grill, and schnitzel, breaded to perfection. Whether you're enjoying a bite with family or toasting with friends, the food pairs nicely with our selection of Irish and German draught beers, such as Guinness, HARP, Smithwick's, Paulaner, Warsteiner, Schöfferhofer Grapefruit, and many more.

But it's not just the food that'll keep you coming—it's the music.
